

Who is on the ballot for this election?

In the November General Election, all voters receive the same ballot, no matter what political party you are registered with, or if you have no party preference. The address where you are registered to vote determines which contests are on your ballot.

In the March Primary Election, all Californians were able to vote to decide which candidates for federal and state offices moved on to the November General Election. Some candidates for local county offices in March who received enough votes to be elected without having to be in a run-off in November, others are on the ballot in a run-off election.
